

Hauptman & Hauptman Interviewed On CBS News

- Hauptman & Hauptman, guiding families through life's transitions –

Livingston, NJ – Yale S. Hauptman, Founding Partner, and Laurie A. Hauptman, Partner, Hauptman & Hauptman, PC., were featured during a segment on CBS 2 News where they discussed the importance of planning ahead for long-term care.

The segment, led by reporter Lisa Rozner, highlighted cases of early on-set dementia as seen in adults as young as 42 years old. Yale and Laurie discussed the overwhelming expenses associated with long-term care. “It gets very expensive, it can be $150,000 a year or more,” explained Yale.

The Hauptmans recommended families begin considering long-term care insurance as early on as the age of 40, since it may provide coverage for unforeseen crises that health insurance and Medicare do not cover.

Laurie advised that, “Everyone over the age of 18 needs to have a power of attorney, a health one, a healthcare power of attorney and a financial one.” She continues the thought by stating, “Putting a legal plan into place is vital as you never know when long-term care may be needed.”

To watch the segment, please click here.

Yale S. Hauptman is licensed both in New Jersey and New York. His practice is focused on elder, estate, and special needs law. He has personally helped thousands of families plan for the complicated and emotional journey through the long-term care process. Yale writes and speaks extensively on elder, estate and special needs law topics, has been featured in both local and national media and has been quoted in print and digital media outlets. Additionally, Yale presents elder law topics to legal, financial, insurance and health care professional organizations as well as to the general public. He is also a published author of an eldercare book entitled, “Be Nice To Me-I Pick Your Nursing Home.” Yale teamed up with his partner and wife, Laurie A. Hauptman, Esq., and nationally acclaimed speaker and financial advisor, Don Quante, for his book, “Don’t Go Broke in a Nursing Home”, a consumer’s real-life hands-on guide to long-term care, including Medicaid eligibility, Veterans benefits, and new ways to “self-fund” your care without going broke.

Laurie A. Hauptman is a New Jersey and New York licensed attorney who has concentrated her practice on estate, elder and special needs law for over 20 years. Additionally, Laurie is a Department of Veterans Affairs’ accredited attorney for the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for veterans benefits. She has been intrinsically involved with helping thousands of families navigate the circuitous and emotional journey through the long-term and special needs process. Laurie was a trial attorney in a litigation firm before joining forces with her husband, Yale. Her courtroom experience is essential to handling the firm’s court work, including guardianships, conservatorships and special needs trusts. Civically and community-minded, she is a member of the United Way Caregivers Coalition Steering Committee, Co-Chairperson of the Elder and Disability Law Committee of the Essex County Bar Association and a frequent lecturer on estate, special needs, and elder law planning topics.

To view additional media outreach, please visit: <https://www.hauptmanlaw.com/press-room/>

Founded in 1995, Hauptman & Hauptman, PC, offers a hands-on approach to Elder law. Your legal matter will be handled with attention and care. For more information, please contact 973.994.2287 or visit <http://www.hauptmanlaw.com/>

####