

Laurie Hauptman Interviewed On 106.7 Lite FM Radio

- Hauptman & Hauptman, guiding families through life's transitions –

Livingston, NJ – Laurie A. Hauptman, Partner, Hauptman & Hauptman, PC., was a guest on "106.7 Lite FM Radio," where she discussed the long-term care planning process.

The show, led by Host, Nina Del Rio, discussed the growing trend of people seeking estate and long term care planning at an earlier age than in our grandparents' generation. Increased awareness of early on-set diseases coupled with accidents and life altering diagnoses have led many to seek out estate planning guidance and long term care options.

"What documents do we need", "How do we protect assets? How do we put a game plan in place? That is why we are trying to urge people to plan earlier than what they had previously thought they should," explained Laurie. Money and time gives a person more options. As she states, "We counsel our clients to 'prepare' so we don't have to 'repair'."

To listen to the interview, please click here.

Yale S. Hauptman is licensed both in New Jersey and New York. His practice is focused on elder, estate, and special needs law. He has personally helped thousands of families plan for the complicated and emotional journey through the long-term care process. Yale writes and speaks extensively on elder, estate and special needs law topics, has been featured in both local and national media and has been quoted in print and digital media outlets. Additionally, Yale presents elder law topics to legal, financial, insurance, and health care professional organizations as well as to the general public. He is also a published author of an eldercare book entitled, "Be Nice To Me-I Pick Your Nursing Home." Yale teamed up with his partner and wife, Laurie A. Hauptman, Esq., and nationally acclaimed speaker and financial advisor, Don Quante, for his book, "Don't Go Broke in a Nursing Home", a consumer's real-life hands-on guide to long-term care, including Medicaid eligibility, Veterans benefits, and new ways to “self-fund” your care without going broke.

Laurie A. Hauptman is a New Jersey and New York licensed attorney who has concentrated her practice on estate, elder and special needs law for over 20 years. Additionally, Laurie is a Department of Veterans Affairs’ accredited attorney for the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims for veterans’ benefits. She has been intrinsically involved with helping thousands of families navigate the circuitous and emotional journey through the long-term and special needs process. Laurie was a trial attorney in a litigation firm before joining forces with her husband, Yale. Her courtroom experience is essential to handling the firm’s court work, including guardianships, conservatorships, and special needs trusts. Civically and community-minded, she is a member of the United Way Caregivers Coalition Steering Committee, Co-Chairperson of the Elder and Disability Law Committee of the Essex County Bar Association, and a frequent lecturer on estate, special needs, and elder law planning topics.

To view additional media outreach, please visit: <https://www.hauptmanlaw.com/press-room/>

Founded in 1995, Hauptman & Hauptman, PC, offers a hands-on approach to Elder law. Your legal matter will be handled with attention and care. For more information, please contact 973.994.2287 or visit <http://www.hauptmanlaw.com/>

####